

CONTENTS

MAY / 2019
ISSUE 53

EXPLORE

REGULARS

05: FOREWORD

06: NEWS

10: YEAR OF TOLERANCE

The latest initiatives promoting tolerance in the UAE

54: FLASHBACK

It's 65 years since Roger Bannister became the first man to run a mile in less than four minutes. Flashes looks back at five other historical speed records

58: INSIGHT

Shainoor Khoja, Chief Impact Officer at Right Health, explains how technology can help boost wellbeing across the emirates

JOURNEY OF DISCOVERY

The Arab world has moved a step closer to the exploration of space following the launch of the first pan-Arab organisation focused on space collaboration /20

MANAGING THE EFFECTS OF MICROGRAVITY

A team of students from New York University Abu Dhabi hope to uncover the reasons behind the body's decrease in immune response when exposed to space-related conditions /26

ELECTRICITY FROM EXTREMES

Solar power experts from the UAE are proving they're just as adept at harnessing the sun in Antarctic conditions /32

THE MULTIPLIER EFFECT

How inclusive digital solutions can help people with low skills and low literacy use technology in a way that supports skills development and, ultimately, improves livelihoods /36

FEEDING THE FUTURE

The UAE's ambition to become a leading global centre for agricultural innovation /40

SPEAKERS' CORNER

Knowledge Summit guest speaker Sarfaraz Alam, CEO and Co-Founder of HashMove, on why the logistics industry must embrace new technologies /44

FIGHTING THE DEMENTIA DEMON

Research into the bacteria that causes gum disease is offering new hope in the fight against Alzheimer's Disease /46

LIFE AT THE CUTTING EDGE

With MBRF welcoming nominations for this year's Knowledge Award, Flashes looks at the career of one of last year's winners – internationally renowned heart transplant surgeon Professor Sir Magdi Yacoub /50